

Name _____

Date _____

Daily Edit

Directions: Read the paragraph and find the mistakes. Draw a line through each error in the paragraph. Then write the correction above it.

What would your mother say if you brought worms to bed. A little girl growing up in England did this. Her name was jane goodall. Jane always loved animals, even when she was a girl. Jane went to africa when she grew up so she could study chimpanzees. She waited and watched wild chimps until they were not afraid of her. She watched the chimps for many years she saw baby chimps grow up and start families of their own.

Name _____

Date _____

(12/3/08)

Daily Edit

Directions: Read the paragraph and find the mistakes. Draw a line through each error in the paragraph. Then write the correction above it.

What would your mother say if you brought worms to bed. A little girl growing up in England did this. Her name was jane goodall. Jane always loved animals, even when she was a girl. Jane went to africa when she grew up so she could study chimpanzees. She waited and watched wild chimps until they were not afraid of her. She watched the chimps for many years she saw baby chimps grow up and start families of their own.