Paragraph 1:

Have you ever wondered about the color of your eyes. Your eye color depends on the color of your Parents' eyes. Your eye color is decided by something called genes. If parents both have blue eyes, they will pass along blue-eyed genes to their children. if parents have different colored eyes, their children could have eyes of many different colors

Paragraph 2:

In January, Eddie thought that winter was the best season. He could go sledding, have snowball fights, and build snowmen Eddie wished that it could always be winter. That year, winter seemed to last a very long time. In march, there was still snow on the ground. On the day of the first practice for his baseball team, it snowed. They had to cancel the practice. Finally eddie changed his mind. He hoped that spring would come, after all.
